FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: *A Vision for Peace: Keep the Dream Alive Now Open!

Green Bay, WI – January 29, 2025 – The 30th Annual Community Celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Birthday theme is A Vision for Peace: Keep the Dream Alive. Since 1995, students from Brown County have been challenged to paint, draw, or draft a piece of creative writing in celebration of each year's theme. The contest was open to all K-12 students living or attending school in Brown County.

Exhibiting now at the Neville Public Museum are the award-winning works of art, poetry, and writing by 18 Kindergarten through 12th grade students representing 11 area schools.

Participating Schools include:

De Pere High School
De Pere Middle School
Dickinson Elementary
Edison Middle School
Foxview Intermediate School
Langlade Elementary
Leonardo da Vinci
Preble High School
Red Smith Elementary
Susie C Altmayer Elementary
Wrightstown High School

All entries are judged on their relationship to the theme, category, originality, writing technique, voice, creativity, and publishable quality.

This celebration is organized by Northeast Wisconsin Technical College; University of Wisconsin-Green Bay; Green Bay Area Public Schools; St. Norbert College; Lovin' The Skin I'm In; representatives from Advocate Aurora Health, Bellin Health, Greater Green Bay Community Foundation, and Humana; and community volunteers.

The exhibition will be on display from January 29 - March 2, 2025.
